EXPECTANCY

No longer is it possible to support the fiction that Japan is not waging a war of aggression against China. Technically, however, there is the viewpoint which could be maintained according to international law that actually there is no war in progress as such. Nevertheless, the good earth of China, drenched in the blood of thousands of inoffensive and defenceless citizens, is adequate proof, if such were needed, to the world that a bloody and unrighteous war is besmearing the Far East.

China is standing alone in defence of her indisputable rights against an aggressor nation which has violated every principle of national decency of conduct. China, unarmed and militarily inferior to Japan, is actually performing a service in the cause of democracy on behalf of every nation and every people which regard as sacred those principles of liberalism which go to the making of free constitutions.

It is now almost three months since the incident at Luktochiang started what promises to be one of the mightiest and murkiest wars in history. Yet China stands alone. We do not consider it unreasonable to suggest that as China's stand is a stand on behalf of principles which are sacred to other nations as well as herself, that those other nations should in some practical manner assist China. It is surely not too much to expect that certain sacrifices should be made by Western Powers in order to save the situation in the Far East. To us it seems intolerable that Japan should be permitted to ride roughshod over one nation and then, in all probability, to continue her career by endeavouring to practise her vision of world domination. The unpleasant fact must be faced that victory to Japan would constitute a real and a very great threat to democracy and it would certainly jeopardise the peace of the world for all time. A prospect so grossly unpleasant is surely sufficient to engender in the hearts and minds of all democratic people a burning desire to assist China in a practical manner during the present great and grave crisis.

Thus, we have arrived at that period in the Far Eastern struggle which may conveniently be referred to as the period of expectancy. Much will depend during the next week or so upon the attitudes of European Powers and America. We feel that concerted and expeditious action by the great Powers can save a situation which has every prospect of converting China into a shambles.

The Powers owe it to themselves as well as to democracy to take action now—once and for all.

Chinese Under Orders To "Hold At All Cost"

TAIYUENFU THREATENED: HEAVY BOMBERS ON NEW AIR FIELD

PEIPING, OCT. 10.
THE LAUNCHING OF THE BIGGEST BATTLE IN THE NORTH CHINA CONFLICT, BY THE JAPANESE FORCES, COMMENCED YESTERDAY ALONG THE PINGHAN RAILWAY ZONE WHEN THE JAPANESE BEGAN A GENERAL ADVANCE ALONG THE NINETY-MILE FRONT AGAINST THE CHINESE POSITIONS ON THE SOUTH BANK OF THE HUTO RIVER.

THE RIVAL FORCES TOTAL AT LEAST 250,000 MEN. THE CHINESE LINE STRETCHES FROM PINGHAN, ON THE EDGE OF THE WESTERN HOPEI MOUNTAINS TO SHENGTE, FORTY MILES EAST OF THE RAILWAY AND IS HELD BY TWENTY DIVISIONS WHO ARE UNDER ORDERS TO HOLD THE JAPANESE ADVANCE AT ALL COST.

The Chinese forces have their base at Shihchiachwang, at the junction of the railway, with a line west of Taiyuanfu. The loss of Shihchiachwang, which is eight miles south of the Huto River, would probably cost China another province as Taiyuanfu would thus be exposed to attack from the east.

Heavy Japanese reinforcements passed through Pootungfu en route to the front while twelve heavy bombers were observed in the newly-built air field outside the city.—Reuter.

APPEAL TO THE NATION

GENERALISSIMO'S STIRRING BROADCAST SPEECH

Nanking, Oct. 10.

A masterly appeal to the people and nation to muster all courage and determination in facing the unprecedented crisis now confronting the Chinese Republic was made by Generalissimo Chiang in a broadcast speech on the eve of the Chinese national day. The Generalissimo says "the whole country, suffering from the throes of foreign aggression, is putting up a heroic struggle to protect the continued existence of this unquestionably gravest and most trying hour in the history of our national emancipation."

"We should know that there is absolutely no hope of the hostilities ending in the course of a few months. The response which our cause has awakened in the foreign peoples was undoubtedly quickened by the bravery of our soldiers."

"International sympathy, though the cause of great encouragement to us, should not be permitted to awaken in us false or ill-grounded hopes. We must help ourselves first before others can be of help to us. We must continuously try to strengthen our national solidarity, the mighty strength of which has been made abundantly clear in the course of our resistance."

"The whole nation must act in perfect union in life and death, and through thick and thin. Personally, having accepted the trust placed in me by the Central Government and my countrymen, I am determined to lead the nation to fight to the last man. I avow my inescapable duty to my country, my people, my subordinates as well as to the political testament of our late leader. I have long resolved to do everything I can, even unto death, in order that all Chinese citizens, men and women, old and young, will each do his or her duty to contribute their efforts towards strengthening the power of our resistance and expulsion of our invaders so that our nation may win a worthy position among the nations of the world."

"Let every Chinese citizen on this day, our National anniversary, make his or her resolution to follow the footsteps of those who have fallen in patriotic service to the country and fight for victory and glory for the Republic. Let us also this day pay our respects to the memory of the heroic dead and remember the beloved ones they left behind."—Reuter.

GENERALISSIMO CHIANG

His appeal to the nation will not fall on deaf ears

STOP PRESS

Canton, Oct. 10.

The Double Tenth commenced in Canton with an air raid alarm at 8.25 a.m. and 30 minutes after the sound of firing was heard to the north-east of the city. A minute later a big seaplane with two smaller planes were sighted flying high and going south.

Anti-aircraft guns went into action and white puffs of smoke in the sky were dangerously close to the machines which headed for safety in the clouds and finally disappeared.

A foreigner in Tungshan states that actually eight planes participated in this morning's raid in two groups of three and two smaller planes. Several bombs were dropped to the north of Tungshan and in the neighbourhood of the Tinbo Aerodrome, or possibly further to the north, at Shaho.

He declares that when the first bomb was dropped the windows in his house rattled and he feared that they might break at any moment.

The Double Tenth, which has a special significance for Canton is being observed as simply as possible in view of the present crisis.—Reuter.

ITALY AND JAPAN

Rome, Oct. 9.

Official circles decline to comment on the report that the Italian Ambassador at Tokyo had conferred with Mr. Koki Hirota but deny that Italy had given Japan an assurance of military support.—Reuter.

BLAMED AND MISUNDERSTOOD

WORLD MISTAKES JAPAN'S GOOD INTENTIONS!

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Japan's aims in China was the subject of a formal statement by the Foreign Office in Tokyo, which also says, in reply to the condemnations of Japan's action in China by the League and State Department in Washington, that the declaration expresses the Japanese Government's regret at the "unfortunate lack of understanding of the real circumstances as well as the intentions of Japan."

The statement says that the Japanese Government seek merely the abandonment by China of her anti-Japanese policy and the establishment of enduring peace in East Asia through Chinese co-operation. It emphasises that Japan harbours no territorial designs on China and contends, therefore, that Japan's action contravenes no existing treaties and asserts that China instead should be deemed the violator of the spirit of the Kellogg Pact and a menace to world peace because the Chinese Government is lending itself to "communistic intrigues" and brought the present hostilities about by their persistent malicious anti-Japanese measures and attempts to do away with Japan's rights and vital interests in China by force of arms.—Reuter.

JAPAN'S DOCTRINE

Of Force And Conquest

London, Oct. 9.

"The Japanese military caste has impressed on the Japanese people the doctrine of force and conquest, and that to conquer the world, Japan must first conquer China," said Dr. Su Lee-chang, at a public meeting in Edinburgh yesterday.

The meeting passed a resolution condemning the "barbarous and systematic massacre by Japanese aircraft and submarines of defenceless Chinese civilians" and calls on the British Government to urge all member States of the League of Nations to apply the strongest possible economic pressure to bring Japanese aggression to an end.

The resolution urges that to attain this end, the British Government should seek the closest co-operation with the United States.—Reuter.

NO COMMENTS YET FROM GREAT BRITAIN

But France Is Disappointed With Italian Note

London, Oct. 9.

The Italian Note contains a refusal of the Anglo-French invitation to participate in the Triangular Conference, stating that Italy is unable to participate in a conference to which Germany is not invited. It suggests that the whole matter be dealt with by the Non-Intervention Committee, and reiterates Italy's adherence to the policy of non-intervention. The text of the Note was issued in London without comment, and the British views are not likely to be made known until sufficient time has elapsed to allow of a close study.

Paris: The Italian reply does not come up to our expectations, declared M. Delbos, after a conference with M. Chautemps. "In its form the Note is not aggressive; it is even conciliatory, but we must act. There must be no further violations of non-intervention." M. Delbos added that there was complete agreement in the French Cabinet and agreement between France and Britain.

Berlin: The newspaper "Diplomatische Korrespondenz" which voices the views of the Wilhelmstrasse fully supports the Italian reply to the Anglo-French Note.

An important ministerial conference has been summoned at 6 p.m. to deal with the Italian reply in the light of the conversations proceeding in London and Paris in the afternoon. The Premier, Minister and high officials in the Foreign Office will attend.—Reuter.

RENEWED ATTACKS ON BRITAIN

Rome, Oct. 9.
After an interval of truce the attacks on Britain are reappearing in the Italian Press, and in connection with the Anglo-French Note, one paper pointed out that Italy proposed the ban on volunteers a year ago but Britain and France rejected the suggestion. Italy, however, did not send volunteers until after the International Brigade had been formed to assist the Governments. The paper added that developments since then were considered to have made the withdrawal of volunteers practically impossible.—Reuter.

AIM OF JAPAN'S EXPEDITIONARY FORCES

To Eradicate China's Anti-Japanese Policy

Shanghai, Oct. 9.

General Matsui, Commander of the Japanese troops in Shanghai, whose proclamation yesterday was his first public statement since he took over command of the Japanese forces followed it up with a message addressed to the people of China.

In it he says that the sole aim of the Japanese expeditionary forces is to eradicate, at any cost, China's anti-Japanese policy. The message re-emphasises that Japan bears no enmity towards the Chinese people, and is "willing and happy to receive those Chinese who have a genuine desire to further peace in the Orient."

Japan, adds the message, is determined directly, but firmly, to determined directly, but firmly, to carry out the aim of forcing a "belligerent Government and its anti-Japanese army to alter its attitude."

Continuing, General Matsui says: "China has persisted in provoking Japan who has hitherto borne these provocations with patience and endurance. What has resulted has been the destruction of international goodwill and the crumbling of the peace structures in the Orient."

CLOSEST CO-OPERATION
"What concerns Japan most is that China and Japan maintain the closest co-operation with the common view of bringing about, and maintaining, lasting peace in the Far East. However, with China ideologically and sentimentally adhering to an anti-Japanese policy, there is no alternative that could be taken by Japan other than the move to eradicate the evil at any cost. As for those innocent individuals who have been unwillingly exposed to the horrors of modern warfare, and who have had their lives and property placed in jeopardy, I express my sincere condolences, and I urge them, if possible, to remain away from the danger areas."

GENERAL MATSUI Is Talking Through His Hat

Shanghai, Oct. 9.

"General Matsui is talking through his hat," was the comment by a Chinese military spokesman to-day on the proclamation of the Japanese Commander-in-Chief. The spokesman said that General Matsui's remarks that the Japanese army have no ill will towards the Chinese Government, were illogical, because the Chinese people are solidly behind the Government.

The Chinese press in Shanghai did not publish General Matsui's proclamation.—Reuter.

CANTON-HANKOW LINE HEAVILY BOMBED BY JAPANESE

Canton, Oct. 9 (9.15 p.m.).
Twenty-seven Japanese bombers, taking off from Aimen off the South Coast to-day, subjected the Canton-Hankow Railway line to one of the most severe bombings to date.

The fleet of planes flew past Fashan at 11.10 o'clock and headed directly northward where they released over 80 heavy bombs along various sections of the line.

Both bridges at Tahan and Kungong, 191 and 224 kilometres respectively, north of Canton, were hit and damaged. Scores of buildings near the Kungong railway station were demolished.

A number of sections of the tracks were blown up. The planes returned to their base by way of Kongmoon and Chungshua shortly after 3 o'clock in the afternoon.—Central News.

"I would like to mention that our Army at the front has requisitioned certain foodstuffs stored in farm houses along the route of advance. Having no party to deal with, the army has been unable to defray the cost, but we look forward to an early opportunity to make due compensation."—Reuter.

Strathroy Dead-Heats With Gypsy Love

Thrills For Punters At The Race Course

Fine Win By Coronation Day: Mr. S. W. Tang Qualifies

Although there was only one big dividend, the opening day of the Eighth Extra Race Meeting at Happy Valley yesterday was an unqualified success and the fact that most of the races were extremely closely fought out affairs, especially in the Canberra Handicap when the favourite, Strathroy, was held to a dead-heat by Gypsy Love and in the October Handicap when Wild Life just beat King's Warden by a head, spoke volumes for the handicapping.

Mr. S. W. Tang qualified to have his name in black letters when he scored his tenth win by bringing home Coronation Day to pay the handsome dividend of $138.50 in the Jordan Handicap while the Daily Double (Dawn Star and Coronation Day) paid the successful punters $64.90 for their modest $5 bet.

The crowd was quite a large one considering the many other counter-attractions and as a result the cash sweeps were well supported. The most successful jockey of the day was Mr. Donald Black with two wins, two seconds and a third but honours amongst owners was evenly distributed, no one stable scoring more than one first.

CARNARVON HANDICAP

Vira (Mr. K. S. Shu) went off to a flying start in the Carnarvon Handicap but it was evident even in the very early stages of the race that it would not be able to last the pace.

King's Coronation (Mr. B. A. Proulx) was made favourite and it fully ran up to expectations. Scenic View (Mr. N. Deltz) was second and Centre Forward (Mr. Y. T. Fung) third. Vira had faded out of the picture at the Village Bend.

tor (Mr. W. C. Poy) was third. The race provided race fans with a very fine finish, and though at one time looked as if Wild Life would not be able to come in, Mr. Black steered his mount through an opening in the middle of the field to steal the race from the favourite.

CANBERRA HANDICAP

Strathroy (Mr. D. Black) the favourite, only just managed to stave off defeat in the Canberra Handicap, being forced to a dead-heat by Gypsy Love (Mr. B. L. Tao) who finished with an amazing burst of speed. Lancashire Chips (Mr. B. A. Proulx) was third.

The race was a very fast one with Lancashire Chips leading for the first half. Then Courting Eve came into the picture for a spell, but only a very brief spell for at the Village Bend there were only three ponies in it—Strathroy, Lancashire Chips and Gypsy Love and the only change that took place was that Gypsy Love finished strongly to tie with Strathroy for first place.

NAVAL WEDDING

Reception On H.M.S. Daring

GREEN-MYERS

Lt. A. H. Green of the Royal Australian Navy, now attached to H.M.S. Daring, was married to Miss Naomi Myers, of Melbourne, at the St. John's Cathedral yesterday afternoon.

The ceremony was a very quiet affair only brother officers of the bridegroom being present. The service was taken by the Rev. J. B. Evans, chaplain of the Dockyard. Commander G. Barnard gave the bride away.

After the Church ceremony, a reception was held on H.M.S. Daring at which a large number of officers of the Destroyer Flotilla were present.

As the newly-weds left the Cathedral, Officer-friends of the bridegroom from H.M.S. Duchess and H.M.S. Daring, formed an archway of swords under which the happy couple passed.

As the bridal pair arrived in a motor launch they were greeted by the firing of crackers from a sampan lying alongside. The ship was prettily decorated and the party spent a convivial time.

NAVAL PARTY ARRIVES

Capetown Crew Warmly Greeted

The 12 officers and 210 men of H.M.S. Capetown arrived in Hong Kong yesterday by train from Canton after a most adventurous and thrilling trip.

Many Europeans and naval officers were at the Kowloon station to greet the party.

Every window of the coaches had its complement of sailors or marines, and several disembarked as the train steamed slowly alongside the platform, to ease the cramp of many long hours in a confined space.

The naval party was under the command of Lt.-Comdr. H. G. Cooke, who said they had had a very enjoyable trip with no casualties from either sickness or shellfire.

As soon as the civilians had been disembarked, there were handshakes all round from friends who had come to meet them, and they made off in their own time.

It is understood that the Capetown's personnel have been distributed among the China Fleet ships at present in Hong Kong, including H.M.S. Eagle, which is shortly due in the Colony, while several men who are due for leave will sail by the Dunera.

The sailors said their trip was most thrilling.

A Japanese troop train, with a Chinese driver, left Peiping for the south on the morning of October 7. At a certain place, which was not revealed, the Japanese soldiers alighted to inspect the railway zone. As soon as they got to a safe distance, the clever driver immediately started the train and headed south at full speed.

The Japanese soldiers not only lost their train but also heavy cargo of military supplies which was in one of the coaches.

The military authorities here announce, that through the requests of foreign merchants, 19 vessels which were bottled up at Canton following the closing at the second bar on the night of September 30 were given special permission to leave for Hong Kong through a narrow opening to-day. The section was left opened between 6 and 9 o'clock this morning.

Tsinyuan, Oct. 9: The Chinese Air Force has been carrying out extensive bombing operations along the Japanese positions on the Peiping-Hankow Railway. It was disclosed to-day.

SHANGHAI PAPER AGAINST CABARETS DURING WAR

Shanghai, Oct. 9: The newspaper Min Pao has started a novelty campaign to discourage Chinese from going to cabarets and dance halls during the present war against Japan.

Although no official action can be taken by the paper to prohibit pleasure-seekers from frequenting cabarets, the editors believe that by giving wide publicity to such persons it may help to keep the cabarets empty.

In a recent issue, the Min Pao published a list of the license numbers with the names of the owners of private motor cars parked in front of a well-known cabaret.—Central News.

MORE CHINESE SOLDIERS DIE OF POISON GAS IN SHANGHAI

Nanking, Oct. 9: Responsible quarters here received a report from Shanghai stating that between 20 and 30 Chinese soldiers have succumbed to poison gas last night north of Chouchia near the Wen Tsao Creek.

It is also alleged, that when the Chinese brought up reinforcements and launched a counter offensive, the Japanese used dumb-bull bullets to drive back the attackers.
